Todd W. Fennell is a Vero Beach estate planning attorney and member of the Trusts, Estates & Tax Group at Gould Cooksey Fennell. He serves as Chairman of the firm's Family Office Division and focuses his practice on sophisticated estate and tax planning strategies for high-net-worth individuals and families.

Todd's practice centers on helping clients organize their family information, planning, and stewardship to reflect their values and priorities for the next generation. His practice includes complex estate planning and probate administration, family office administration, family business succession, charitable planning, and advanced tax strategies for high-net-worth individuals and families.

He is admitted to practice before the United States Tax Court and brings a thoughtful, long-term perspective to each engagement, helping families achieve clarity, continuity, and purpose in their wealth and legacy planning.
