Cameron M. Dalton is a Vero Beach estate planning attorney and member of the firm's Estate Planning & Tax Group. He advises individuals and fiduciaries on estate and tax planning, trust and estate administration, and business succession planning, helping clients navigate complex matters with clear, practical guidance.

Cameron works closely with clients and their advisory teams on solution-driven, tax-focused planning involving revocable and irrevocable trusts, lifetime gifting, trust modification planning, and closely held entities. He also represents clients in high-net-worth and complex probate and trust litigation matters, including disputes involving estate planning documents, fiduciary duties, and issues arising during trust and estate administration.

Cameron earned his J.D. and LL.M. in Taxation from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. While in law school, he served as Vice President of the Estates & Trusts Law Society, worked as a research assistant, received the Book Award in Fiduciary Administration, and spoke at the Ellen Bellet Gelberg Tax Policy Symposium. Cameron also serves as Vice President of the Indian River County Bar Association Young Lawyers Division.
